

<Ramayana Story> Helen Ro

The multiple gods had meeting and there was a demon that gods fear, Demon whose name is Ravana and caused bad things every year

No gods could kill the terrible, evil demon Ravana
That is when Rama tried out to kill Ravana the devil

One of the gods was Rama
Lord Vishnu was reborn as Rama
Having many steps of Samsara

The gods sent Rama
Defeat the evil Ravana

Later the king has made a bad choice
He chose Bharta as king who had powerful voice

Rama had to leave to forest for 14 years
The beautiful women, Sita disagreed,
But he had to follow his dharma

Rama exiled and Disappeared into the forests and he never got desired

Rama's very kind brother, Bharta comes Says to Rama his father is dad, and he can be the king and can come

But, reasonable Rama says he shall stay, Rama tells Bharta
He should follow his father's saying and follow dharma and for 14 years he should still be in the forest, thinks Rama

Mean while, Surpanakha and others asked Ravana the evil
"Brother! You must kill Rama and not fail!"

The evil Ravana takes away the beautiful Sita Oh poor poor beautiful Sita, what is Rama going to do?

Lord Vishnu being reborn to Rama.

There was a big bird who was helpful named Jatayu
The brave Jatayu tried to stop Ravana to kill Rama
Poor Jatayu, he get his wings cut off from the evil
Ravana

Rama gets to know that Ravana is trying to kill him
Rama asks for help to Hanuman
King of monkey, who is brave, the Hanuman.

Rama and Hanuman becomes a good team and defeats the evil Ravana's army
They fight strong punching, swirling, kicking, sand shooting arrows to kill Ravana's army

The evil Ravana cutting off poor Jatayu's wing.

Rama saves Sita from Ravana and he know they are meant together, his love Sita
The beautiful Sita

Rama defeats Ravana and his army
He earns good karma
He becomes a powerful, great king
He rules as a king for many long years until his life's last spring

Conclusion/Extra: Therefore, it is good and right to follow dharma as what Rama did and you can earn good karma later.
